We expect most of our audience will be avid readers and novice writers. They will be very interested in speaking to accomplished authors. Therefore, each participant is required to pick a subject they are willing to talk about with the visitors at their table. Any suitable subject is acceptable. For instance, visitors may ask:

How do you get your ideas?
How did you get started writing?
How do you find time to write?
I have a book but how can I get it published?
Do I need an agent?

Please describe one topic you are willing to discuss that we can use in the publicity for the event:

Please list a couple of books on writing that you would recommend to a novice?
