

2012 Winter Seminars

DATE	HOOR	TOPIC	CE HRS
Nov. 1	10 – 11 AM	Weed Resistance, Kurt Hembree, University of California Cooperative Extension	1 – O
	11 – Noon	Sharpshooters & Pierce’s Disease in Grapes, Steve Vasquez, UC Cooperative Extension	1 – O
Nov. 5	10 – 11 AM	Wildlife Control in Madera County, Randy Partch, USDA Wildlife Services	1 – O
	11 – Noon	Reducing VOC Emissions, Pam Wofford, Department of Pesticide Regulation	1 – L
Nov. 16	10 – 11 AM	The ins and outs of training your pesticide handlers, Madera County Staff	1 – L
	11 – Noon	Online submission of pesticide use reports, Melissa Cregan, Madera County	1 – L

The letter “L” indicates Laws and Regulations credit hours have been requested.

The letter “O” indicates Other credit hours have been requested.

All sessions will be located at the Madera County Social Services conference center, 700 E Yosemite, Madera

All seminars are FREE and open to the Public. No pre-registration required for classes.

Topics subject to change without notice. Seating based on availability.

For Information Call: (559) 675-7876

Online Resources

www.co.fresno.ca.us/agce Provides 2 different classes that are 1.5 hours each of laws & regulations credit at no cost.

www.pentonag.com Provides a variety of classes on various topics in both the laws & regulations and other categories. Please verify class is accredited in California. Most classes are free; however fees may apply on some classes.

You must print and submit a certificate of completion to receive credit for online classes!